

Student ID: 20897248

Matthew Leung

 m53leung@uwaterloo.ca  linkedin.com/in/matthew--leung  647-878-2234

Summary

Languages: Python, JavaScript, Java, C++, HTML, CSS

Frameworks: Django

- 1st year computer engineering at University of Waterloo
- Developed warehouse operations web app from scratch using Django during last co-op placement.
- Recognized for ability to learn new concepts and technologies at a fast rate by previous employer.
- Completed 1st year programming course in C++ with 95%.

Experience

Jan - April 2021

Twin Toucans Inc - Full Stack Web Developer

- Created a web app from scratch using Django to assist in warehouse operations and customer order placement.
- Used HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Bootstrap to create functional and attractive user interfaces for workers and customers.
- Integrated app with Stripe payment platform to issue invoices and accept payments from customers.
- Actively responded to user feedback by implementing new features and fixing bugs while under minimal supervision.
- Increased warehouse operations efficiency by 30% and lowered error rates to 0.01%

Education

University of Waterloo - BAsC Computer Engineering

Candidate for Bachelor of Applied Science, Computer Engineering Co-op Program university of Waterloo, ON, September 2020 - Present

- Relevant Courses: Fundamentals of Programming, Linear Circuits, Digital Circuits and Systems